Small businesses should have a “Return to Work” plan at the top of their to do list, especially now that parts of the country have begun to open up for business. It is only a matter of time before the state(s) where you conduct business will have employees returning to work.

A good “return to work” plan should include established detailed protocols and policies as follows below. This list is not inclusive of all the protocols and policies necessary.

- Infectious disease preparedness and response plan;
- Screening and testing potentially sick employees;
- Cleaning and sanitizing the workplace;
- Social distancing and;
- PPE
